The Newsletter of the Country Dance Society, Boston Centre

Winter 2004-2005

[Spring 2005]

Deadline for Summer issue: May 1

◆ ◆ ◆ Annual Meeting on Wednesday, March 23rd ◆ ◆ ◆

From the President

My goodness!—two years have flown by, and this is the last time I shall write a column for the newsletter as president. Of course, I shall still be around, kibbitzing, opining, and generally making a nuisance of myself—but others will have a greater say than I in what goes on and how.

I'm moderately pleased with what we've managed over this time. Judy Erickson led a push to get some policy documents written and ratified offering guidance to camp session chairpeople, and there are a number of other documents which I hope we shall be able to put up on the website so that they are available to whom it may concern.

We now have a three-person committee to deal with the website—heretofore it has been managed by a single person, which has proved rather lonely. With several people working together, some synergy is developing, and a new look is emerging. So to everyone who has announcements to make which should go on the website, make sure you get your stuff to the Web Committee (thanks to Cortni Frecha, Mark Jones, and Christine Robb!).

Of course there are many folk to thank, and I shall shelter behind the excuse that there are far too many to name—that will ensure that I don't forget someone crucial! But seriously, none of the Society's activities happens without people making it happen, week after week, month after month, year after year. People who care help out with our dances and work as a team, cooperating, creating a wonderful spirit.

Most of those who come to the Wednesday evening English dances know that this newsletter is very much a hands-on, teamwork, volunteer thing, as it gets collated, stapled and addressed during the dance. It's wonderful to see how many people take a few minutes out of the country dance to help the Welcome In The May!

We invite you to come "dance in" the May at a special English Country Dance on April 30, Saturday, at the Concord Scout House, Concord MA. The leader is our own Barbara Finney, with music provided by a new group—with very familiar faces. Woodlark is Karen Axelrod on piano, Earl Gaddis on violin, and Chris Rua on assorted wind instruments. What a wonderful way to welcome the coming of May—with a dance to celebrate the season!

The dance will start at 8:00 PM and run until 11:00 PM. Admission is $10 at the door. Contact for information is Frank Attanasio at (603) 878-4332 or attanasiof@aol.com. We look forward to seeing you.

New England Dance Committee Prospects for Spring

The New England Dance Committee continues its First Friday Experienced Contra Dance with three dates throughout the spring. March 4th recent New England arrival Nils Fredland calls with a brass and reeds band, Fall Elixir (Ethan Hazzard-Watkins, fiddle; Anna Patton, clarinet; Jesse Hazzard Watkins, trumpet, and Nils Fredland, trombone). April 1st brings the Rhythm Method String Band (Cathy Mason, fiddle; Erica Weiss, guitar; Paul Boyd, fiddle, guitar; Dedo Norris, bass). Caller to be announced; check flyers. May 6th, Lisa Greenleaf calls with Honk the Moose (Nat Hewitt, fiddle; Adam Broome, guitar & cittern; Seth Houston, piano).

The semi-annual Scout House fund raiser, which CDS Boston co-sponsors, will be the first Friday in June. The band will be announced. Admission is $16. Additional contributions are always welcome paper dance into some kind of order. But there's a lot that happens quietly behind the scenes, that nobody makes a fuss about—they just do it: moving furniture, setting up sound systems, preparing a space for dancing and then restoring it to whatever kind of order it was in before the dance, searching for new dance spaces, putting together the material for the newsletter, preparing for the Ball. All of these happen because people care to make it happen. The sessions at camp take a huge amount of work to manage—there are budgets, timetables, hiring, all to be done many months ahead, as well as the real-time running of the sessions themselves.

So how about doing something to thank people, instead of just talking about it? Well, in fact, there is something happening: there will be a "thank you" dance at the Scout House in Concord on Sunday, March 20th to which all helpers are invited—if you have volunteered your time, some work, or other resources, please come along: yes, you! Sue Rosen will call a mixture of English and Contra dances, with music by Lydia Ievins, Karen Axelrod, and Naomi Morse. You'll meet others who feel likewise about keeping our dancing fresh and new at the same time as the traditional roots are maintained—you may even encounter like-minded people whom you don't already know! The dance will not be closed to the general public, but they'll have to pay, unlike you.

Perhaps it will serve as a good prelude to our Annual Meeting on March 23rd—my final act will be chairing that meeting. I just thought: what does a chair-person look like?—sometimes I feel like a kind of seated centaur, with six limbs, four for sitting and two for gesticulating. It makes the meetings go better.

It has been a very satisfying two years (well, yes, occasionally frustrating, too, mostly with myself). I've very much enjoyed working with everyone—lots of people all interesting in different ways, weaving a wonderful web of willing work.

Thank you, one and all.

—Julian Cole

Camper's Week Reunion

Camper's Week people have such a great time that, over the years, they have periodically arranged to gather mid-year for a reunion. This March, from the 18th to the 20th, there will be a reunion at the Senexet House in Woodstock CT. The reunion two years ago at this retreat center, with a dance at a nearby grange, was a great success. Anyone is welcome who has been to Camper's Week—so sign up and see your old friends! For the entire weekend, room and board, an adult will pay $98—children 6 to 12 half that. For information call Sue Turner, registrar, at (781) 894 3488.

at this precious community resource [Concord Scout House, Inc., 74 Walden Street, P.O. Box 73, Concord MA 01742; (978) 369-3455].

The Occasional Sundays Series is still being shaped. March 20th will be an evening of English and Contra Dances, Sue Rosen calling, with Lydia Ievins and Naomi Morse fiddling and Karen Axelrod on piano. We're working on an Irish Sets evening, another evening of Mostly Squares, and perhaps a No-Walk-Thru evening to close out the season.

Two Special Friday events on April 29, a 5th Friday, and May 27, a 4th Friday, are in the works. Check flyers for details. One of these may have special appeal and an invitation for younger dancers to introduce their friends to contra dance.

The New England Dance Committee includes Mark Jones (chair), Cortni Frecha, and Jenna Watson. They are kindly aided by fifteen occasional volunteers. As always, the most up-to-date calendar the committee is at the CDS Boston web site: www.cds-boston.org/american Why English-Scottish?

To those already steeped in the music and dance of both of these rich traditions, the answer is obvious: where Scottish is wild and breathless, English is lyrical and elegant; yet English can be raucous and free where Scottish is exquisitely precise. English-Scottish Session offers the best of both worlds. Join us for an exhilarating three and a half days of classes, workshops, and dance parties featuring this unique and irresistible mix of dance and music from the English and Scottish traditions, at Pinewoods Camp, July 4-8, 2005.

This year we bring a fresh vision to the session, with an emphasis on Community and Youth. To that end, we have selected staff who are not only outstanding leaders and musicians, but who are known for their positive community spirit, their virtuosity in many traditions, and their special connection with the younger generation of dancers and musicians. These include leaders Joanna Reiner (English country), and Terry Harvey (Scottish country), who have introduced several generations of Swarthmore students to the joys of dance; Andreas Hayden, of the legendary teen rapper team the Greenwich Guard; the amazing Emerald Forman, bringing Cape Breton sets and stepping; and a band of breathtaking musicians, led by Dave Wiesler, and including Hanneke Cassel, Anne Hooper, Ken Allen, Doug Creighton, and many more.

To further entice the younger generation, we're offering a Youth Group Discount, for 15-to-24-year-olds applying to ESS as a team or group of 5 or more. We also have several Reduced Fee Work Exchange opportunities. See our application form for more details—you can find it at www.cds-boston.org and www.rscdsbos-ton.org—or contact registrar Jill Emery at (215) 591-0750 or jemery@mccus.jnj.com.

July 4th Weekend

Campers who attend this year's July 4th Weekend at Pinewoods will find much that is familiar, but some innovations as well.

Helene Cornelius will return to teach English Country dance and will be joined by Gene Murrow of New York City. Fans of English Country dance will be pleased to learn that both Helene and Gene will be teaching two classes a day, so there will be plenty of opportunity to dance and learn.

Our social dance program also includes contras and squares, led by Rick Mohr, and several couple dance workshops, including a ragtime workshop led by Bob Morris and Kathy Terzi. A special treat this year will be a Tango class, taught by Matthew Duveneck. On the display dance side, Judy Erickson (of Orion Sword) will teach longsword, Appalachian flatfoot clogging, and Molly dancing; and Peter Kruskal (formerly of Velocirapper) will be teaching rapper sword. Rounding out our teaching staff, Jamie Beaton and John Mayberry will return to lead a singing session and to help with the evening entertainment.

We are equally excited about our music staff. Joining Bare Necessities (Peter Barnes, Earl Gaddis, Mary Lea, and Jacqueline Schwab) is an exciting roster of musicians, including Karen Axelrod, Corey DiMario, Jeremiah McLane, Naomi Morse, Anna Patton, and Lissa Schneckenburger.

As always, there will be plenty of dancing all day and evening, and parties in the camp house every night. And, of course, there is the camp itself, with Long Pond and Round Pond, beckoning those who want a break from all that dancing.

Please see the enclosed flier for more information. This weekend is popular and is likely to fill up by the lottery deadline, so don't put off applying!!

Hope to see you there!

—Peter Masters and Stephanie Jack, co-chairs

Andy Woolf, 59, performer, English teacher

Andrew G. "Doc" Woolf was a free-spirited performer on the stage and in the classroom. Andy, who performed at folk festivals across the country, was a regular musician at contra dances, and taught English at Northern Essex Community College, died Feb. 4, apparently of a heart attack, in Lahey Clinic Medical Center in Burlington. He was 59.

He grew up in White Plains, N.Y. As a youth he attended a summer music camp owned by the Country

Dance Society. He earned a bachelor's degree at Oberlin College in Ohio, a master's in English at the University of Wisconsin, and a doctorate in ethnomusicology at Tufts University.

A memorial service was held in the Unitarian Universalist Church in Danvers.
