Swing into Summer! First Weekend at Pinewoods

Don't be late to Pinewoods!

Swing into Summer (June 17-19, 2011) is your first and best chance of the year to enjoy an amazing intergenerational weekend of music and dance at beautiful Pinewoods Camp!

Our fabulous staff includes Nils Fredland, Marcie van Cleave, Mary Lea, Jacqueline Schwab, Jan Elliot, Jeremy Carter-Gordon and the band Nor'easter. They are primed and pumped and are planning a fantastic weekend for all!

Exciting, fresh and affordable, Swing into Summer features American, English, couple and ritual dancing; shape note, harmony and pub singing; and camper-led activities from morning 'til night. In addition, family-friendly crafts, activities, dances and classes will be offered for all ages.

Some of the exciting activities planned:

- Evening dances with Elegant English and Kinetic Contras
- Late Night Dancing in the Camphouse
- All Camp Gatherings with Community Singing, Dancing and Sharing for All
- Opportunities to play and call – so bring your instruments!
- Hambo Heaven (in just two days!)
- Pub Night in the Camphouse
- Swimming in Long Pond
- And More!

Invite your friends, come alone, or bring the whole family! All ages and experience welcome. Special discounts if you apply by April 8, 2011.

For more information on registration, preliminary schedule, staff bio's, etc. please visit us on Facebook or go to our web site swingintosummer.cds-boston.org

July 4th weekend at Pinewoods Camp

Getting tired of shoveling snow and wondering what the next storm will bring? Time to turn your thoughts to summer and mark your calendar for CDS-BC's July 4th weekend at Pinewoods Camp! The dates for this year are June 30 – July 4, 2011. The session starts with dinner on Thursday night: it includes four evening dances and three full days of English and American dance classes, dancing, singing, and much more, before ending with breakfast and farewells on Monday morning. Pinewoods Camp provides delicious meals, rustic, comfortable cabins, open-air dance pavilions, and lovely swimming ponds.

English Country dance leaders this year are Helene Cornelius and Gene Murrow, with Lisa Greenleaf leading American contras. Ritual dance is strongly represented: Kari Smith, long-time student and teacher ritual dance, leads three classes for all: Longsword, Garland and Marley Clog. Marlboro Morris & Sword teacher Erica Morse teaches an advanced Cotswold morris class, and we welcome Meredith Langstaff to the weekend, teaching a beginning rapper class.

July 4 continued from cover

In the song department, Erica and Naomi Morse lead a harmony workshop, and Jamie Beaton and John Mayberry lead our traditional Porch Sing. There will be a musicians' workshop too, led by Anna Patton. One-shot classes include Lisa Greenleaf's great teaching of Dutch Crossing, an encore of Karen Axlerod's comedy improv, and a romping ceilidh class for all. Rounding out the weekend, Laura Sprung will be back to teach her popular Craft Tyme workshop.

There will be top-quality live music from our music staff: Mary Lea, Peter Barnes, Karen Axlerod, Dave Langford, Anna Patton, Erica Morse, Naomi Morse, Owen Morrison, Doug Creighton and Paul Eric Smith. All classes and evening dances feature live music.

Late-night sessions traditionally include pub night, skit night and more dancing, jamming and singing, with snacks and libations for all. John and Jamie have been in touch with our favorite Bolero Brothers, and rumor has it that they may appear at the weekend.

If you are interested in attending this year's July 4th weekend at Pinewoods, please register using the enclosed registration form, also available on the CDS-Boston website. This session is generally full by the lottery deadline, and we do not gender-balance, so do plan accordingly. Remember that those who apply together are considered together, so all on the same application must be CDS-Boston members to receive membership-priority admission.

We're looking forward to seeing you at the weekend!

Alisa Dodson and Jeanne Morrill, co-chairs

English-Scottish Session at Pinewoods Camp

This summer's English-Scottish Session, July 4 – 8, 2011, promises to have variety for everyone: English Country dancing, Scottish Country dancing, Morris, rapper, step classes, you name it! Our wonderful musicians, include Karen Axlerod, Earl Gaddis, Laura Risk, Dave Wiesler, Natalie Haas and Doug Creighton, will move us through a great program. Dance staff, including Scott Higgs, Stella Fogg, Gene Murrow, Gillian Stewart and Howard Lasnik, will provide a variety of classes. Currently scheduled are graded English Country dancing, graded Scottish Country dancing, a combined English and Scottish social class, Cotswold Morris, rapper, traditional/up-tempo English dances, and a step-and-reel class in multiple flavors. Camp begins Monday afternoon (July 4th), has three full days of classes on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and ends with breakfast on Friday morning.

The program fee is $340 for members of CDS-Boston Centre or RSCDS Boston Branch, $350 for non-members, and $270 for 13 to 17-year olds. Theme parties are traditional to the Session; past Sessions have included competitive Maypole dancing! Afternoon tea in the Camphouse provides a relaxing moment in the program. For more information, or to express interest in being considered for one of the work-study positions (life guard, nurse/first aid, sound assistant, or dining hall manager, contact Judy Erickson at 978-425-4877 or judyericks@comcast.net, or Evelyn Murray at 617-864-8945 or athollbrose@verizon.net. Registration information and application is at www.cds-boston.org/camp.html and <http://rscdsboston.org/events-pinewoods.html>.

This is an excerpt from “Absolutely Classic” an article “When Cecil Sharp met William Kimber” by Derek Schofield.

EFD&S Vol 61, no. 2, Summer 1999.

“December 1899 saw particularly harsh weather, and the dancers, who were mainly employed in the building trade, were faced with no work and no wages. So it was decided that they would dance on Boxing Day even though it was not the season of Morris dancing. Amongst the places they visited was Sandfield Cottage on the London Road opposite the Britannia pub in Headington. This house was owned by Mrs. Dora Birch, who was entertaining her daughter’s family for Christmas, Her son-in-law happened to be Cecil Sharp, who fortunately saw the Headington Quarry Morris Dancers on Boxing Day 1899.

E.F.D.S. NEWS

The Magazine of The English Folk Dance & Song Society.
Number 31, Volume III. Part 7, London, December, 1932.

THE E.F.D.S. COMES OF AGE

On December 6th, 1911, a meeting was held at St. Andrew’s Hall, London, and at this meeting Mr. Cecil J. Sharp moved this resolution:

“That a Society to be called The English Folk Dance Society be established, having its headquarters in London, with the object of preserving and promoting the practice of English Folk Dances in their traditional forms.”

This was seconded by Lady Gomme and carried unanimously.

In June this year [1911] the Committee of the E.F.D.S. resolved that the twenty-first birthday be suitably celebrated and Tuesday, December 6th, was set aside for the birthday party.

The problem of how to celebrate an occasion when the celebrants were scattered throughout the land was eventually solved by persuading the British Broadcasting Corporation to broadcast a concert of English Folk Music which would form an interlude at every Country Dance Party that might be held on that evening in any town or village in England.

At Cecil Sharp House the evening began with a Country Dance Party followed by the broadcast interlude. The second part of the programme was given up to a more specific kind of celebration. First the birthday cakes were played in and appropriately honoured with dance. Lady Amptill cut the cake and then made the one speech of the evening, introducing the Endowment Fund.

The cakes were quickly sold by a team of auctioneers and to wash down the final crumbs there was a wassail. The Wassail Bowls were sung on by wassailers in the Musicians’ Gallery, the whole company joining in the chorus, continuing until all had drunk the health.

The Director in introducing the concert programme from Broadcasting House spoke as follows:

“It is the custom in this country for a young man, on reaching the age of twenty-one, to celebrate the moment when he waves farewell to childhood and turns to salute his future destiny.

“This is such a moment for the English Folk Dance Society.

“It is more than possible that some of you who are listening have never heard of the English Folk Dance Society, despite its twenty-one years. What is it for and how did it begin? you may ask. I will try and tell you the little story that gives the answer to both questions. It all centres round the person we call the countryman or the peasant.

“Throughout our history the countryman has been different from the townsman in his outlook and attitude to life. On the whole everything that he did – spoke – dreamed – sang and danced – came from the heart rather than the head. Our characteristic English country culture was the product of a hundred generations of English hearts. This old culture was doomed from that moment one hundred years ago when factories sprouted and railways first began to crawl – when England decided to go ‘black.’ From that moment the characteristic country doings and goings-on began to fade out.

“A certain number went on for quite a long time after. They were slow to stop, partly because they had had such a long start and partly just because they were engrained in the hearts of the people and not in their heads.

“Just about this time an inkling of what was happening began to stir the minds and consciences of a few enlightened thinkers. These began to ask each other various questions and one was ‘What are these old songs we sometimes hear the country folk sing?’ A few set to work in earnest to find out, and so it all began. What they found of course were the broken fragments of the old England that had never gone 'black,' the remains of the tradition that had been built up by the people of the fields, the hills and the meadows. From these fragments have been reconstructed again a little vocabulary of song and dance – a language as much our own as the mother tongue that we all speak.

The first organisation that was set up was the Folk Song Society, designed to rescue and preserve traditional songs and ballads. One of the more active members of this organisation was a certain Cecil James Sharp.

"While song-collecting, Sharp came into contact with traces of old dances and he determined to try to preserve these too. He soon found that while the songs could be both preserved and popularised with the help of the music publisher the dances had to be demonstrated and taught.

"He began to do this himself but it quickly became evident that it was going to be much more than one man's work. So he decided to build up an organisation for this special purpose and twenty-one years ago a baby was born called The English Folk Dance Society.

"Since 1911 the baby has passed through childhood and adolescence, surviving the ailments common to all young and growing organisations, and this year it married the Folk Song Society and changed its name to the English Folk Dance and Song Society.

"Known as the E.F.D.S. not only in this country but in many parts of Europe and America, the Society appears before you tonight as a full-grown national movement, honoured by the B.B.C. with a national broadcast for its coming-of-age party.

"Guided by Cecil Sharp until his death in 1924 and afterwards fortified by his example and inspiration the E.F.D.S. has schooled young and old of all degrees in the traditional songs and dances of their country, and the Society can with modesty claim that as a direct result of its work English Folk Songs and Dances are tolerably well known throughout England and in many other parts of the world.

"Beginning with a bare handful of optimists one man's idea has grown into a national movement. This movement has now its own beautiful building in London named Cecil Sharp House after its founder. In that house a coming-of-age party is in progress, but at this moment the revellers, (like you,) are listening ready to endorse the little speech I have been instructed to make.

"Coming-of-age is the occasion for looking forward as well as back. For twenty-one years we have prepared the ground-now we seek to consolidate the position. It is our aim to establish the practice of singing and dancing English songs and dances as a natural everyday activity for ordinary mortals. We are working toward the formation in every town and village in England and in the greater England overseas of self-contained song and dance centres, each giving active enjoyment to its members.

"Singing and dancing will always find a place in the leisure and recreation of our people, and it is the aspiration of this young English Folk Dance and Song Society to fill that place with the best songs and dances that we believe England has yet produced."

Summer 2011

Tribute to George Fogg, Archivist at NEFFA 2011

CDS-BC and NEFFA jointly sponsored a session at NEFFA this year to thank George Fogg for his many years of collecting and organizing materials for both organizations. The session's program of English Country dances was drawn from those listed as done by CDS-BC at NEFFA demonstrations over the years. George led off the session calling three dances, followed by Barbara Finney and Rick Jackson. Barbara and Rich each read a snippet from the archives to give a sense of the wealth of material that George has collected. Vince O'Donnell, Amy Cann and Barbara Pixton provided the music. Pinewoods Morris Men performed Queen's Delight to honor George's long connection to the Morris scene. A selection of enlarged covers of NEFFA booklets over the years was on display, including the program for the first "Fall Folk Festival" in 1944. CDS-BC and NEFFA jointly presented George with a certificate of appreciation and a memento made from NEFFA booklet covers. In addition, George was presented with a DVD containing a large number of records from the NEFFA archives. The dancers gave George warm applause in appreciation of his work.

English-Scottish Session at Pinewoods Camp

July 4 – 8, 2011

The English-Scottish Session Committee is very excited about our staff and program for this summer's session at Pinewoods Camp! English Scottish Session welcomes dancers of all flavors and experience and provides classes in English and Scottish Country dancing for all levels.

The ritual program has classes in Morris with Scott Higgs and rapper with Gillian Stewart, and this year Laura Scott will present a Highland class and a pot pourri class of Scottish folk styles, including Highland folk dances. Additionally, Gene Murrow will offer "A Measure a Day" English Country dance class, each day exploring the subtleties and special considerations of dancing to a specific time signature. ESS continued page 3

There will also be an English Traditional dance class, featuring up-tempo and stepped dances. Also offered is a step-and-reel class, with a day each for Scottish Highland (strathspay and reel), English (Dorset 5-hand reel), and Cape Breton (Mabou) dances. Bring your whacketa shoes!

Our fabulous musicians, including Karen Axelrod, Earl Gaddis, Laura Risk, Dave Wiesler, Natalie Haas, Paul Woodiel, Doug Creighton and Dan Emery, will move us through a great program. Paul Woodiel, Natalie Haas and Doug Creighton will offer an innovative music class. The plan is to offer two days of separate, more instrument-specific sessions lead by each of the musicians, and then for the class to come together on the third day to combine what each group has been working on. This is your chance to work with great musicians in a small-group setting!

English Country Dance staff includes Scott Higgs, Stella Fogg, Gene Murrow, Andy Taylor-Blenis and Howard Lasnik. They will provide a variety of classes for experienced and expert dancers including graded English Country dancing, graded Scottish Country dancing, and a combined English and Scottish social class.

Camp begins Monday afternoon (July 4th), has three full days of classes on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and ends with breakfast on Friday morning.

The English Scottish Session program fee is a very affordable $270 for those 13 to 25 years old (member or non-member), $340 for CDS-Boston Centre and RSCDS Boston Branch members (over 25), and $350 for non-members (over 25). Theme parties are traditional to the Session; past Sessions have included competitive Maypole dancing! Afternoon tea in the Camphouse provides a relaxed moment in the program.

For more information, or to express interest in being considered for one of the work-exchange positions (life guard, nurse/first aid, sound assistant, party planner, contact Judy Erickson at 978-425-4877 or judyericks@comcast.net, or Evelyn Murray at 617-864-8945 or athollbrose@verizon.net. July 4th weekend at Pinewoods Camp

Summer is fast approaching and the planning for July 4th Weekend at Pinewoods is progressing smoothly. We have a vibrant staff of callers, instructors and musicians. We have one staffing change to announce. Unfortunately, Kari Smith will not be able to join us this year. Meg Ryan, a fellow leader of Guiding Star Clog Morris, will teach garland in her stead. Meg, one of the Dancing Marleys, will also teach Marley Clog. Jan Elliott, known for her excellent and clear instruction, will lead the Longsword class.

As I write, July 4th Weekend is full, but there is no waiting list. We may have cancellations, so if you haven't applied and want to come, send in that application. We hope to see you there!

Annual Meeting of CDS-BC, March 23, 2011

Outgoing President Judy Erickson called the meeting to order at 7:05 p.m.

Membership Committee Arthur Ferguson presented the Membership Secretary's Report noting there had been a drop in membership showing a downward trend for the past three years. Arthur noted that the report and Membership Graph 1986-2010 and Dues Graph 1986-2010 can be found on the website at cbs-boston.org.

CD Project Dan Pearl gave a brief overview of the CD project, the financial status (break-even over time), and current and pending releases (Waltz-time dance tunes and music for Gary Roodman's dances).

Treasurer's Report The CDS-BC Accountant, Ralph Jones, had copies of the Treasurer's Report available.

English Dance Committee Deb Karl mentioned the success of various programs and special events, especially the Playford Ball, and thanked the committee members and volunteers for their efforts.

New England Dance Committee Mark Jones described the NEDC program as being somewhat reduced this year and in need of rethinking. Attendance is down and he is the only committee member right now.

Pinewoods Camps: First Weekend, Pinewoods English-Scottish Session, July 4th Weekend, and Labor Day Weekend Camp chairs not being present at the beginning of the meeting, and in the interests of time, Judy Erickson, President, gave a brief overview of the camps that CDS-Boston Centre runs, that overall they break even financially, and that attendance has been growing at Labor Day and First Weekend.

CDS-BC Board Judy Erickson described the current reorganization of the board into three major committees: Operations, Finance and Development. Information on members and purview of the committees will be posted on the website to better direct members' questions relating to things like insurance, copyright, use of the piano, etc. Judy detailed that the work of the board has been growing in complexity (more insurance requests, more involved tax reporting), even as members' available time to volunteer has been diminishing. In an effort to get the required work done, the board is restructuring. However, the Society may have to consider hiring secretarial or administrative help in order to meet required deadlines and make sure things are happening.

Continuity is a problem on all volunteer boards. The Board is clawing back from serious lack of information, but there is no guarantee that, if things are reconstituted now, the information won't disappear again in the future. CDS-BC, with responsibility for an endowment, cannot afford to lose track of its reporting and financial obligations. There are some challenges with hiring someone; notably that paying someone to do work when others volunteer is problematic. Judy also described that fact that the Society's operations have lost money every year, without a plan to address this situation. She communicated her concern that the Board does not have the requisite expertise to manage investments or oversee the finances. While Ralph Jones is currently our long-time, experienced accountant, this situation will change at some point.

Judy asked, at Mark Jones's request, some questions of the audience regarding the New England Dance Committee program. Members give opinions on what they thought the mission might be, since there is a lot of contra dancing around. They saw holding cross-over dances (English and American) or dances in underserved locations as a possible reason to continue the NEDC program. Annual Meeting continued p. 8

We're looking forward to our 2011 Wednesday Summer Series and Ice Cream Socials! We have a fabulous summer season lined up for you, starting with John Garden from Canberra, Australia and Peter Barnes, Mary Lea, and Jacqueline Schwab playing.

You'll recognize some familiar faces coming back and some new ones - and I'm talking both callers and dancers, of course! Newcomers/basics sessions are at 7:10pm, led by the callers.

The ice cream is also returning, and we'll be back at our lovely hall in West Newton. We were able to squeeze in 8 weeks this year, July 6 through August 24.

See you there!

When asked about how to solve operational losses of the Society, members were split on whether they thought there should be reduced programming or increased prices. Judy pointed out that, given the approximately $9,000 loss in the English program annually, this could be resolved either by raising prices by $2/person per event, or increasing attendance, on average, by 10 people per event. Judy encouraged members to take matters into their own hands and encourage others to attend. Judy ended with a statement that the workload situation for the Board and the Society was an ongoing issue and more information would be forthcoming (watch the newsletter!). She ended with an appeal for members to join committees or the Board to ensure that the Society continues.

Election to CDS-BC Board

George Fogg presented the results of the election. There were 51 ballots. All nominees were elected:

Board of Directors:

Mark Ward
Jacqueline Barnard
Maureen Cary
Mark Jones
Nora Smith
Susan Gere

Officers:

Diane Gonzales – President
Erika Roderick – Vice President
Judith Erickson – Treasurer

The Secretary/Clerk position was unfilled at the end of the Annual Meeting but Nora Smith indicated her willingness to serve as Secretary and her offer was accepted. She will be appointed to the position at the next board meeting.

Judy Erickson closed the meeting after thanking the committee chairs, past and present board members, and all those who help to keep the organization running.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:40pm and followed by dancing for all.

Lifetime member of Country Dance Society Boston Centre, Mary V. (Banis) Blomberg, in her 100th year, died March 13, 2011.

Beloved wife of the late Elliott Blomberg. Loving mother of Stephen E. and his wife Jane Blomberg of Needham and Ronald A. and his wife Anne Blomberg of Frankestown, NH. Sister of Edna Cann of New Hampshire and the late Anne Witzleben.

Mary attended Playford Balls, dance parties and she danced at the South Weymouth English Dance Group. According to George Fogg, she was a darling lady & always a lady. She and Evelyn Lamond came often to the Wednesday English Country Dance when it was held at the YWCA, Central Square, Cambridge.

She was a long time supporter of Country Dance Society, Boston Centre and she was the Secretary for a couple of years.

New Structure

Board of Directors, CDS-BC

The Board has instituted three committees with the following responsibilities:

Operations Committee

- Oversee program committees to ensure that event reports are submitted appropriately and in a timely manner
- Assist program committees in finding members, if necessary, and ensure program committees are functioning to serve the membership
- Annually review the insurance policy for current needs and necessary changes to items covered, limits and named insureds; work with insurance agent to ensure appropriate coverage
- Review rental and other agreements to ensure that terms of the agreements (such as insurance limits) are in line with the organization
- Manage the email list policy and approve exceptions

Finance Committee

- Prepare annual budget by May for following September – August time period
- Recommend membership rates
- Prepare financial plan
- Arrange for financial review

Development Committee

- Strategize on increasing membership, visibility of the organization, attractiveness to youth
- Fundraising
- Website development
- Plan for upcoming milestone celebrations (100th anniversary, etc.)

In addition, the board bylaws require two other non-program committees:

Grants and Endowments Committee

- Receive and review scholarship and grant applications, make recommendations on action to the board
- Maintain current scholarship and grant documents
- Ensure information on scholarship and grant procedures is easily accessible and visible to the membership

Nominating Committee

- Nominate members for the Board of Directors

Current board and appointed members of the above committees (and specific contacts for special topics) are:

Operations Committee:

Mies Boet-Whitaker (contact for insurance policy questions)
Mitch Diamond (contact for questions on copyrights and royalties)
Maureen Carey

Finance Committee:

Judy Erickson, Treas. (contact for budgets)
Mark Ward
Mark Jones
Deb Karl (non-board member, appointed)
Thom Yarnal (non-board member, appointed)

Development Committee:

Neil McMullen
Erika Roderick, VP
Daniel Friedman

Grants and Endowments Committee:

Erika Roderick, VP
Hal Wagner (appointed)
Robin Rogers-Browne (appointed)

Nominating Committee:

Judy Erickson, Treas.
Mitch Diamond

Note that new board members Nora Smith and Susan Gere and continuing member Jacqueline Barnard (ex-Clerk/Secretary) will join a committee in their new capacities at the next board meeting.

Information on committee members and duties, as well as contact emails, is posted on the CDS-BC website.

If you are interested in being appointed to or assisting a committee, please let the Nominating Committee (Mitch Diamond, Judy Erickson) know. The board welcomes your participation!
