Bob Paul Dies

Bob Paul, a long-time member of CDS Boston and CDSS, died of cancer on Sunday 30 April. A memorial service was held on 7 May. In past years Bob had been a frequent participant in country and contra dances, and Pinewoods camp events. Donations in his memory may be made to Old Cambridge Baptist Church, 1151 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge 02138.

Reflections on the passing of Bob Paul

Bob Paul, so gentle and quiet most of the time—one could have easily missed knowing this beautiful man. His contribution to our lives was mostly subtle and unassuming, but always there. He certainly influenced my life by being a teacher, friend, and father figure. Bobby was an avid dancer while healthy, a longtime Pinewoods camper, and certainly a devoted concert goer. Many may have called the phone line for the Folk Song Society of Greater Boston to find out what was happening; for a long period of time, it was his voice you heard on the message. Bob was also a great collector of books about folk songs, music, and dance of all ages and types. Part of his collection was donated to CDSS and part to the John C. Campbell Folk School before he passed on. Many were books that are difficult to find, including some very rare ones no longer printed. For those that didn't know him, perhaps you saw him at a concert, sitting alone, enjoying an evening of music, looking somewhat lost, but content. For those who did know him, it was the little things he did that were so big. Thanks for the waltz, Bobby!

the potluck can go as late as 10pm....

We live at 1 Fayette Park. Directions from Prospect and Broadway: Turn left onto Broadway; go four blocks and park on Broadway or Fayette Street. Go to the light and turn right onto Fayette Street; turn into the tiny little street on your left, Fayette Park. Our place is the red house on the right. Go up on the first porch and look for #1's door or just follow the sounds of cheerful people.

My phone number is 617-547-1326. —Helen Snively
